4. Treasurer's Report- coming soon - approval
5. David Black and Sandra Andersen will be presenting, "A Tall Tale: Their Trip to the California Redwoods."

Old Business:

6. Thank you, Pam and Chase Davis, for all your hard work at Wild and Woodsy! Carol Froelich and Kent Dimmitt, John and Carolyn Warhol, and Cheryl and Larry Bush were on the organizing team. Who did I miss? Many CVC members volunteered for various assignments. We greatly appreciate all of you who walked and hiked the trails.
7. Wild and Woodsy summary.

New Business:

8. Proposed by-law amendment - Pam Davis
9. Trip to Poulsbo to celebrate Joy Adams. Thanks go out to Chuck, who paid for all of our walks, Carol Froelich and Kent Dimmitt, Barb and Tom Malone, Liz Morrison, Don Witt, and others who helped organize this 5K and 10K walk on a beautiful spring day. Several members of Joy's family joined us on the walk, and we gathered for an informal memorial for Joy at the American Legion Park afterwards.
10. Joy Adams' gathering will be June 22, 2024, 12 PM, Westminster Presbyterian Church, 1925 Boulevard Rd. SE. Olympia, WA.

11. Congratulations to Carol Froelich! An award was given to her from CVC at the Wild and Woodsy dinner. Carol will be stepping down from being the CVC Newsletter Editor after the June/July newsletter is published. She has published excellent newsletters for us for the past 3 1/2 years.

12. Diane Evans has volunteered to be the editor for our newsletter, but we need people to write articles and send her pictures.

13. May 12, 1:40, is our Second Sunday walk at Nisqually National Wildlife Refuge hosted by Mary Clem. Please sign up at the Chevron Station at 10246 Martin Way E. and drive a short distance to the Refuge Visitor's Center ($3 parking fee). Please carpool.

14. Staircase Hike on July 12. More information will follow.

15. If you would like to be an officer for CVC or be the ESVA Representative for the next two years please let Bob Morrison know. Voting is in June, and people will take their offices in July.

16. Starting July 1 our new Area Coordinator will be Bonnie Tucker. Congratulations!
