

Capitol Volkssport Club Membership Meeting Minutes
11 November 2021
Held Via Zoom
President Karen Younkins Presiding

1. New President Karen Younkins gave a welcome message. Julie Heath discussed the walks that she and Ian took in their recent trip to England. Carolyn Warhol reported on one of Daffodil's walks.
2. Minutes of the 12 October 2021 membership meeting were approved.
3. The Treasurer's Financial Statement of 31 October 2021 was approved. Treasurer Pam Grieg-Davis discussed The Walker Participation Report for the third quarter.
4. Karen welcomed Sheila Morrison as the new membership chair.
5. Karen Younkins noted the various walking programs that are under way or about to begin, including the Winter Walking Contest, the Mailbox Challenge, Frontline Heroes and the new three-year ESVA Challenge, "On the Road Again." Pam Grieg-Davis reported that the patch design for the latter has been received and approved and that the booklets should be on sale by the end of November. The challenge begins on January 1, and is restricted to walks in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Alaska. There are three categories of walks included:
 1. Multi-day events like Wild and Woodsy.
 2. Holiday walks (one per year for each particular walk).
 3. Walk I have never done before (non-YRE walks).
6. Perki Sweet and Bonnie Tucker reported on the December 11 Holiday Walk. There are a few volunteer positions still to be filled. A list of challenges will be posted on the CVC website.
7. The CVC Christmas walk will be in Aberdeen Friday, December 17. The 4:00 walk begins at the Safeway Starbucks. A preliminary decision was made to go to Duffy's Restaurant afterwards. Details will be in the newsletter.
8. Liz Morrison will be in charge of the review and updating of the CVC Bylaws and Standing Rules. An initial Zoom meeting has been scheduled for Tuesday, November 16 at 5:00.
9. Karen invited everyone to check out CVC's updated website and newsletter and the updated Wild and Woodsy brochure.
10. The Meet Up connection for Capitol Volkssport Club was discussed. Go to Capitol Volkssport Club-Meet Up-South Sound Walkers. If you are having trouble getting notifications, it was suggested that you check/update your settings or start a new account.

11. Pam Grieg-Davis gave a Wild and Woodsy Update. The next Zoom planning meeting will be on Thursday, December 2 at 7 PM. 18 persons are registered for the event so far.

12. The deadline for submitting materials to Carol Froelich for the next issue of the newsletter is November 24.

13. There was a discussion about CVC nametags for members. It was decided that anyone who wants a nametag may have one at club expense by requesting it from Karen Younkins.

14. David Black reported on his efforts to get an online store for CVC clothing and gear set up with Bud Bay Promotions and Apparel. He will continue to pursue this.

15. Karen raised the issue of a new meeting space for the club once we decide to return to face-to-face meetings. Suggestions were solicited.

16. It was reported that Rosemarie Hirsch is the new president of Evergreen Wanderers.

17. The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

David R. Black, Secretary CVC
