

Capitol Volkssport Club Membership Meeting
July 10, 2018
Izzy's Classic Buffet
Olympia, WA

Following dinner and a very interesting presentation by Barb and Tom Malone about their trip to Costa Rica and volunteering with sea turtle conservation, the meeting was called to order by president Holly Spaulding at 7:15 pm.

Holly welcomed new members and reminded all members that it is time to pay dues to our membership chairperson, Karen Younkins.

New Business:

1. Holly explained how to order CVC logo wear using the Budd Bay web site and logging on to the CVC store. It will be decided at a later date when to open the store. To be assured of a perfect fit, it is recommended that the purchaser go to the store and try out "blank" clothing.
2. Box tenders. Four walk boxes are available for new tenders. Box tender job descriptions are available. See Holly, if interested. A class for box tenders will be offered at the upcoming regional convention in Port Angeles.
3. Sanctioning walks: It was moved, seconded and carried to sanction all existing walks plus the previously sanctioned Hoquiam walk for 2019.
4. It was decided to order a generic traveling stamp for upcoming walks that are not regular year round walks, i.e. some of the Tuesday night walks that were sanctioned in past years.
5. Permission was granted to lend our sign poles to the Whidby Walking Festival.
